ARTICLE 6

(Skills)

1. It is, in particular, the responsibility of the Instituto Nacional de Normalização e Qualidade (National Institute for Standardization and Quality, INNOQ, IP):
 - a) coordinate and develop standardization activities in the country together with other stakeholders;
 - b) managing the national mark of compliance;
 - c) designate the conformity assessment bodies to use the national conformity assessment mark on the evaluated products;
 - d) recognize the technical competence of the conformity assessment bodies, while the accreditation entity hasn't been created;
 - e) implement Mozambican Technical Standards that support the technical regulations drawn up by entities with legal regulatory competence.
 - f) decide on the delegation of competences to other public and private entities, through a prior qualification process;
 - g) verify the conformity of domestic and imported products;
 - h) carry out technical inspection activities of equipment;
 - i) certify the compliance of management systems, products, processes, services and people with the Mozambican Technical Standards and, in the absence of these, with the International Technical Standards;
 - j) develop and manage Conformity Assessment Programmes; and
 - k) establish guidelines and criteria for Standardization and Conformity Assessment Activities.
2. The powers of other players are defined in their respective statutes.

CHAPTER III

Mozambican Technical Standards

ARTICLE 7

(Statute of Mozambican Technical Standards)

1. The Mozambican Technical Standards are voluntary in nature, the application of which depends on the need for their use.
2. Mozambican Technical Standards become mandatory when they support technical regulations or a general law, aiming to achieve a legitimate objective.

ARTICLE 8

(Drafting)

1. The Mozambican Technical Standards (NM) are drawn up based on international standards, except when such international standards or their main elements are an inadequate or ineffective means of achieving legitimate objectives.
2. The Mozambican Technical Standards (NM) are drawn up by the Standardization Technical Commissions (CTN), by the Standardization Technical Subcommittees (SCTN) and by the Standardization Working Groups (GTN), whose composition comes from the actors referred to in article 5 of these Regulations.
3. When there are no Mozambican Technical Standards for a given product, process or service, it is up to the regulatory authority to request INNOQ, IP to prepare them.
4. INNOQ, IP, should invite all stakeholders to participate in the Standardization Technical Commissions (CTN), in the Standardization Technical Subcommittees (SCTN) and in the Standardization Working Groups (GTN).

ARTICLE 9

(Approval, homologation, edition and publication)

1. Mozambican Technical Standards are approved by the Technical Commission for Sectorial Standardization (CTNS).
2. Mozambican Technical Standards are homologated by the head of INNOQ, IP, and the homologation list is published in the III Series of the Official Gazette.
3. The Mozambican Technical Standards come into force after their edition.
4. It is Only considered Mozambican Technical Standards texts prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation and presented as such before regional and international standardization organizations.

ARTICLE 10

(Analysis and review)

1. The review of the Mozambican Technical Standards is carried out every five years, after analysis and decision by the respective technical commission.
2. The review of Mozambican Technical Standards is carried out before the period specified above, if technological progress or economic or social conditions so require, or at the request of the entity with regulatory competence in the matter.
3. The review of the Mozambican Technical Standards follows the same process as that of their drafting.
4. The review and repeal of Mozambican Technical Standards, referred to in technical regulations, are coordinated by INNOQ, IP, with the participation of all entities with regulatory competence in the matter, which should form part of the respective Standardization Technical Commissions.

ARTICLE 11

(Intellectual Property)

1. The Mozambican Technical Standards and other normative publications prepared and published, in accordance with the process established in the present Regulation, are treated as collective intellectual works, benefiting from protection under the terms of the applicable legislation.

2. The copyright, corresponding to the normative publications referred to in the previous number, belongs to INNOQ, IP.

CHAPTER IV

Technical Regulations

ARTICLE 12

(Drafting)

1. Technical regulations are drawn up by the competent authorities in areas where the product, process or service may pose risks to the health and safety of consumers or the environment.

2. In the preparation, approval and application of technical regulations, the following must be observed:

- a) technical regulations must be based on Mozambican Technical Standards or in their absence on harmonized Regional Technical Standards or International Technical Standards;
- b) in the preparation of technical regulations, the method of reference to standards must be followed; and
- c) technical regulations must not constitute unnecessary technical barriers to trade.

3. All technical regulations drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the previous numbers must, before approval, be sent to INNOQ, IP, for the purpose of notifying the World Trade Organization (WTO).

4. The purpose of the notification is to make the technical regulation available to stakeholders for a period of 60 days for comments so that, once approved, it does not constitute an unnecessary technical barrier to trade.

ARTICLE 13

(Reference to technical standards)

Reference to technical standards is made by designating only the number and title of one or more specific technical standards, so that subsequent reviews of this or these standards are applied without it being necessary to modify the Regulation.

CHAPTER V

Conformity assessment

SECTION I

Activities and procedures

ARTICLE 14

(Activities)

1. Activities within the framework of conformity assessment must take into account national needs, be non-discriminatory, be transparent and avoid unnecessary technical barriers to trade, based on technical standards and regulations.

2. Conformity assessment activities can be carried out by:

- a) first part: when it is made by the supplier;

b) second part: when it is made by the buyer or consumer; and

c) third party: when it is carried out by an organization that is independent from the supplier and the buyer or consumer, who has no interest in selling the product.

3. The conformity assessment procedure is mandatory for suppliers of products, processes and services when related to a technical regulation.

4. When the conformity assessment procedure is related to Mozambican Technical Standards, it is voluntary.

5. Conformity assessment procedures form part of mandatory control product conformity assessment programs.

6. Conformity Assessment Activities for national products are carried out by public entities with competences defined in specific legislation.

ARTICLE 15

(Conformity assessment procedures)

1. In the conformity assessment procedures based on technical standards and regulations, the attribution of licenses, certificates and marks must be established according to the features of the product, process or service to be assessed.

2. It is the obligation of suppliers to subject their goods to the conformity assessment mechanisms provided for in the conformity assessment procedures.

3. In the conformity assessment procedures, the following mechanisms may be used:

- a) Supplier's declaration of conformity;
- b) Certification;
- c) Inspection;
- d) Labeling; and
- e) Testing.

4. Conformity assessment procedures are described in Portuguese.

5. Conformity assessment procedures, when mandatory, must be established by the entity with regulatory competence in partnership with INNOQ, IP, in order to be granted the right to use the national conformity mark.

6. Conformity assessment procedures, when voluntary, must be established by INNOQ, IP.

SECTION II

Conformity Assessment Programmes

ARTICLE 16

(Conformity Assessment Programs)

1. All imported products whose conformity assessment is mandatory are subject to the conformity assessment programme, in accordance with the list of mandatory control products, attached to this regulation, which is subject to updating whenever public health, safety and environment reasons determine so.

2. Every product covered by the Conformity Assessment Programme must be evaluated and approved based on the Mozambican Technical Standards on quality, technical regulations or other technical specifications adopted by INNOQ, IP.

3. The technical specifications applicable to the Conformity Assessment Programmes for mandatory control products are published and made available by INNOQ, IP, and by interrelated entities.

4. The conformity of the product with the technical specifications recommended in this article is evidenced by displaying the conformity mark on its label or packaging, or even through a certificate of conformity issued by an entity selected by INNOQ, IP, which must be presented to the Customs Authorities at the act of entry into the country.

5. The list of mandatory control products is subject to periodic updates depending on the risk analysis that each product represents to public health, the environment and safety, and must be approved by Ministerial Diploma, by the Minister who oversees the area of Industry and Commerce and published in the I Series of the Official Gazette.

6. The products covered by this Regulation, when imported, may be subject to inspection upon entry into the country.

ARTICLE 17

(Conformity assessment procedures of imported products)

The procedures within the scope of conformity assessment programmes are described and approved by INNOQ, IP, and cover the following activities:

- a) physical inspection prior to shipment;
- b) sampling, testing and analysis in accredited laboratories;
- c) audits within the scope of assessing the degree of implementation of technical standards relating to product manufacturing processes; and
- d) document analysis or verification and conformity assessment with the requirements of applicable standards and/or regulations.

ARTICLE 18

(Conditions for authorization)

1. The conditions required for an entity to be authorized to represent INNOQ, IP, in the execution of Conformity Assessment Programmes are the following:

- a) professional competence and qualified personnel;
- b) equipment and infrastructure that meet the requirements for conformity assessment, including international accredited laboratories network;
- c) independence and impartiality in the conformity assessment procedure;
- d) interoperability capacity and establishment of a communication platform, to check conformity by INNOQ, IP, anywhere in the world, in real time; and
- e) confidentiality.

2. For the purposes of number 1 of this article, the selection of the entity is made through a public tender.

3. INNOQ, IP maintains the register and publishes the Conformity Assessment Entities authorized to represent it in the most widely circulated newspaper.

ARTICLE 19

(Supervision)

When it is demonstrated that the product does not comply with the essential requirements, the costs arising from the supervision of Conformity Assessment activities, within the scope of Conformity Assessment Programmes, are the responsibility of:

- a) importers; and
- b) domestic producers and packers.

SECTION III

Conformity Marks, Certificates of Conformity and Licenses

ARTICLE 20

(Conformity marks, certificates of conformity and licenses)

1. Conformity of products, processes or services with technical standards and regulations is evidenced by conformity marks and certificates.

2. It is incumbent upon the Minister who oversees the industry and commerce sector to approve the national conformity mark, which ensures compliance with the requirements established by technical standards and regulations, whose mechanisms and conditions are defined in the respective conformity assessment procedures.

3. The management of the national conformity mark is the responsibility of INNOQ, IP.

4. The national conformity mark is protected by current legislation.

5. Certificates of Conformity and licenses are issued within the scope of carrying out Conformity Assessment Activities in accordance with established procedures and applicable legislation.

CHAPTER VI

Inspection, Fees, Infractions and Sanctions

ARTICLE 21

(Inspection)

1. Without prejudice to other entities with supervisory functions, it is up to the entity that oversees the areas of economic activities to monitor compliance with the provisions of these Regulations.

2. The supervisory body referred to in the previous number may, in the exercise of its duties, request the collaboration of judicial, public security or administrative authorities.

ARTICLE 22

(Fees)

1. Fees are due for the Conformity Assessment Activity under the terms of this Regulation.

2. It is incumbent upon the Minister of Finance and the person responsible for the area of activity to approve, by joint Ministerial Diploma, the fees referred to in the previous number, as well as the destination to be given to the respective revenues.

ARTICLE 2

(Infractions)

Without prejudice to the offenses provided for in general law, the following constitute offenses to this Regulation:

- a) the partial or total reproduction of the Mozambican Technical Standard made by an entity other than INNOQ, IP;
- b) the improper use of the certificate, license or conformity mark for a purpose other than that for which it was intended;
- c) the adoption of conduct or omissions that deceive the consumer or constitute a practice that may mislead him;
- d) the impediment or obstruction of an agent in the exercise of his powers;

- e) substantial modification of a product, process or service that has been subject to a conformity assessment, without prior notice to the competent authority;
